J. B. CLARDY REMEMBERED

Provision Made For Absent Son In His Mother's Will.

The will of Mrs. Mary B. Clardy, of Howell, was admitted to probate Saturday. It was dated May 12, 1912. T. F. Clardy, one of her sons, is named as executor. He is directed to convert the estate into cash as soon as possible and divide it equally among six of her children, J. Henry Clardy, Parker Clardy, U. L. Clardy, Mrs. Mary C. Garrott and Mrs. Tenny C. Jenkins. Except that the sum of $500 is to be invested in first-class interest-bearing securities for the benefit of one of the sons, J. B. Clardy. If he is heard from or puts in application for the money within five years the principal and accrued interest are to be his. But if five years expire without his having claimed his share, or being located, his part is to be equally divided between J. Henry Clardy and Mrs. Tenny C. Jenkins, and he is to get nothing should he ever show up.

The wearing apparel, household and kitchen furniture, silver and Turned Down For Sale Of Another Group of Irish Leadtable ware, etc., are left to two daughters, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Mary C. Garrott.

MRS. WEST'S WILL.

The will of Mrs. Julia A. West, widow of the late R. D. West, was admitted to probate Saturday. It was dated Mar. 25, 1915, and witnessed by L. H. Davis and Nat Gaither. It debts, names the Cumberland Presbyterian and Methodist churches as Bank & Trust Co. executor of the will. The estate is small.

SINCE TAKING PERUNA

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beveriy, Mass writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever-felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for $100,000 of Road Bonds.

The Christian county fiscal court ium on $100,000 worth of the $400,- William Pearse and Capt. McBride, 000 issue of good road bonds voted in five more rebels, sentenced to death provides for the payment of her just this county on March 18. The offer by court martial, were shot Thursday was made by the Planters Bank & and Friday. Trust Company. The bonds were to beneficiaries and makes the City have been sold on April 20 but owing to the crisis with Germany the buyers refused to take them at better than par at that time and have held off since, as they have done at Owensboro and, possibly, other places. The fiscal court took the position that they would wait awhile and hope for better financial conditions and run the risk of getting a better premium. Al-Cave Johnston has gone to Erin, so they decided that they preferred to itor Greene to compel him to pay the High School during the past sesbe begun at once and there would still be $300,000 to be affected by the better conditions. The first sold would of course be first retired, be ed from a visit to relatives at Gracey. ginning in 1921. It would be the part Mrs. Mollie A. Kenner is visiting of wisdom if the court would reconsider and accept the offer made, which is within about $500 of what
